

Name: _____

"CORN" PURSE FROM GRANDMA

Learn Together Discussion Sheet

♥ Let's Learn Together!

This story teaches us that sometimes people misunderstand what they hear, and it is okay to laugh and learn from mistakes.

Let's think, talk, and learn together!

Listening Carefully

When we listen carefully and ask questions, we can better understand what others mean.

We can:

- ★ Listen carefully
- ★ Ask questions when confused
- ★ Learn from mistakes
- ★ Laugh kindly
- ★ Keep trying to understand

Remember

Grandma gave Gracie a coin purse filled with money.

Gracie thought Grandma said corn purse and told everyone she met about it.

When Grandma explained the difference, Gracie finally understood and laughed along with Grandma.

Part A: Story Comprehension

- 1 What did Grandma give Gracie?

- 2 What did Gracie think Grandma called the purse?

- 3 Who was jumping rope when Gracie walked to the store?

- 4 What did the store clerk imagine was inside the purse?

- 5 What did Grandma explain when Gracie returned home?

Part B: Learn Together Discussion Questions

- 1 Why do you think Gracie misunderstood Grandma?

- 2 Have you ever heard a word incorrectly?

- 3 What could Gracie have done if she was unsure what Grandma said?

- 4 Why is it okay to make mistakes sometimes?

- 5 What lesson do you think Gracie learned from this experience?

Think About It

- ★ Why did everyone laugh when Gracie said "corn purse"?
- ★ How do misunderstandings happen?
- ★ What should we do when we do not understand something?

Let's Talk Together

- ★ Tell about a funny misunderstanding you have had.
- ★ Why is asking questions a good way to learn?

Big Idea

When we listen carefully and ask questions, we can learn new things and avoid misunderstandings.