A LESSON ABOUT SHARING

Learn Together Discussion Sheet

♥ Let's Learn Together!

This story teaches us that sharing and taking turns helps everyone feel included and respected.

Let's think, talk, and learn together!

♥ Sharing and Taking Turns

Sharing helps us enjoy things together and solve problems peacefully.

We can:

- ★ Share with others
- ★ Take turns
- ★ Be patient
- ★ Listen to others
- ★ Work together

★ Remember

Gracie and Brother both wanted to use the television remote.

They argued because each wanted to watch a different show.

Father and Mother taught them how to share by taking turns, and everyone was happy.

Part A: Story Comprehension

- 1 What were Gracie and Brother looking for in the family room?

- 2 What happened after Brother found the remote?

- 3 Why did Gracie and Brother end up under the table?

- 4 What did Father say it was time for them to learn?

- 5 How did Gracie and Brother solve their problem?

Part B: Learn Together Discussion Questions

- 1 Why do you think sharing can sometimes be difficult?

- 2 How does taking turns help people get along?

- 3 Can you think of something you share with someone else?

- 4 How would you feel if someone never shared with you?

- 5 What are some ways we can be good sharers?

Think About It

- ★ Why were Gracie and Brother both upset?
- ★ How did Father and Mother help solve the problem?
- ★ What might have happened if they had continued arguing?

Let's Talk Together

- ★ When have you shared something with a friend or family member?
- ★ Why is taking turns important at home and at school?

Big Idea

When we share and take turns, everyone gets a chance to enjoy things together.
